UCAN PERFORM

TWO DAY PERFORMANCE FESTIVAL – 15th and 16th JULY 2009

Wales Millennium Centre, Cardiff Bay

Time: 10.30 – 6.00pm

Join in with the UK's first performance festival for visually impaired young people! This two day festival will celebrate the successful culmination of the three year project DEW (Developing Emotional Wellbeing through the Arts) a partnership between RNIB Cymru www.rnib.org.uk/Cymru and UCAN Productions www.ucanproductions.org and funded by the BIG Lottery. The ethos of all our activities is 'have fun, learn new skills, and make new friends'

WORKSHOPS

- Drama
- Body Percussion
- Storytelling
- Radio Plays
- Sound Recording
- Activities for under 7's
- UCAN Sing
- Dance and Movement

The festival programme is free and all activities are designed for visually impaired young people. No experience necessary. Please note that in addition to the above there will be a series of public performances by visually impaired young people. Professionals, teachers, family and friends are welcome to attend. Allocation of places will be on a first served basis.
